The photographers

Barbara Krawczyk and Amy Dane, left, spent most of May touring and photographing Pakistan. While they shot many scenic photos around the nation, they also captured compelling street images and portraits of the people of Pakistan. These are the faces of Pakistan.

Photo exhibition

SPS member Rosemary Polletta will have two of her photographs on display at the Amy H. Carberry Fine Arts Gallery at Springfield Technical Community College this month, part of the exhibit, Here and Now: Springfield. The show is juried and curated by STCC fine arts students and Sondra Peron, the gallery director. The gallery is in the fine arts building, B28, located to the right of the Pearl Street entrance.

Springfield Photographic Society Field Trip Release Form

I (we), the undersigned, understand that the Springfield Photographic Society requires participants to share responsibility for their own safety and the safety of others during field trips. We hereby acknowledge that as participants in field trips we may be exposed to risks, including but not limited to, vehicular travel over land and water, foot travel over difficult terrain, and unexpected weather conditions. We may also encounter hazardous plants, wildlife, and/or insects. In the event of injury, we understand that we may face delays in reaching professional medical help. We fully accept these risks and agree to hold the Springfield Photographic Society, its officers, directors, volunteers, and agents free from any and all liability for injuries and/or loss which we may incur, directly or indirectly, while on a trip.
